

The Band

Full Circle is Canberra's most exciting Celtic-Australian band.

Winner of the Band section of the Canberra Irish Club "Great Irish Music Competition" (2000) Full Circle is at home playing haunting airs on the Hardanger fiddle or playing full-on 'wall-of-death' Irish reels!

Jerry (fiddles) and Butch (guitars) are former members of Western Australia's chart busting band Mucky Duck while Bruce the bass player is one of the best from Adelaide (Jerry's old stomping ground)

All met up again in 1998 in Canberra, and, having each come full circle, decided to form the band - hence the name...

The band's extensive experience shows in their polished and vibrant performance.

Their sessions have been described as nothing less than an 'Xtreme celtic music workout!'
